According to "Linesman position at the blue line", where should the linesman position her skates when the puck is in the neutral zone and coming towards her end?

Correct

- ☒ 20 to 30 centimeters inside the blue line so that she is inside the attacking zone
- ☐ 20 to 30 centimeters outside the blue line so that her skates are in the neutral zone
- ☐ On the blue line
- ☐ At the redline.
- ☐ Near the top of the endzone circle.

The referee has identified a fan from team A to remove for abuse of an official. The fan refuses to leave. State the referee's next step. ("Removing someone from the Arena")

Correct

- ☐ The referee continues to talk to the fan, reasoning with the fan that they need to leave.
- ☐ The referee asks the rink attendant for help.
- ☐ The referee puts two minutes on the clock, then continues to reason with the fan.
- ☒ The referee puts two minutes on the clock, and informs the benches of the situation, finds safe place to wait.

In the cone system, the referee may go below the goal line. What best describes the amount of time the referee should be below the goal line (See "endzone positioning")?

Correct

- ☐ a) if the puck is in the end zone, go below the goal line.
- ☐ b) when ever there is a scramble at the net, the referee should go behind the net.

☒ c) go below the goal line only when you need to get out of the way or get a better view. Return to home base, half-piston, at-the-net as soon as you have successfully avoided the play or no longer need to see the play from that angle (and it is safe to do so).

☐ d) go below the goal line only when it is absolutely necessary. Return to home base, half-piston, at-the-net the next time you change ends of the ice.

Select the option that best describes "Home Base" (See "endzone positioning")

Correct

☐ a) Somewhere around the bottom of the circle; puck is on the far side of the ice.

☐ b) Very near the net; there is a scramble for a loose puck near the goal or goal crease

☒ c) Back against the boards, below the faceoff dot; Puck is on your side of the ice.

What is the best way to limit the effect of a coach trying to manipulate the line change procedure by sending out players at the wrong time (See "Gamesmanship" document)?

Correct

☐ a) Stick very closely to the 15 second line change procedure

☐ b) send players back to the bench if they change outside of the 5 seconds allotted for their team.

☐ c) Be nice, just keep warning the coach...it will eventually go away.

☒ d) Both a) and b)

The referee has called a penalty and is now going to the timekeeper's box. The referee should (Perspectives: How to call a penalty):

Correct

☐ a) keep skating past the penalty box and make the penalty signal quickly as you go by.

☒ b) come to a stop in front of the timekeeper's box, wait for the timekeeper to look at you, and make the call.

☐ c) Come to a stop in front of the timekeeper's box and make the call as quickly as possible to get play started again.

☐ d) Do not make any signal. You already did that when you called the penalty.

When entering a fight, what part of the player's body do you want to control? (Fight Management: Breaking up a fight).

Correct

- ☐ a) Legs to stop her from moving.
- ☒ b) Wrap up the arms to prevent the player from punching you or the other player.
