A delayed off-side is signaled by the linesman. Attacking players A5 and A8 leave the attacking zone into the neutral zone ("tagging up"). Attacking player A10 leaves the ice inside the attacking zone through the players' bench gate. The puck is still in the attacking zone. What does the linesman do? (Situation 24 Rule 10.8)

Correct

- ☐ Keep the delayed offside on, call the player back on the ice to tag up.
- ☒ Drop her arm to nullify offside; a player is considered out of the zone once she leaves the ice onto her team's bench.
- ☐ Keep the delayed offside on until the puck leaves the zone.

Play starts and the official notices that one team has too many players on the ice. At what point must a penalty be assessed? (Situation 1 Rule 2.5d)

Correct

- ☐ A penalty must be assessed as soon as the puck is dropped.
- ☒ A penalty must be assessed if play is not stopped immediately and the error corrected.
- ☐ This error was made by the official, therefore, stop play and correct the number of players. Reset the clock to replay the time. No penalty.

The goaltender is facing a penalty shot. She accidentally leaves her crease before the player taking the shot touches the puck. State the referee's decision. (Rule 4.9b, Situation 11)

Correct

- ☐ a) Stop penalty shot immediately and restart penalty shot.
- ☒ b) Allow penalty shot to finish, redo the penalty shot if a goal is not scored. If a goal is scored then the goal counts and the penalty shot is not retaken.

- ☐ c) Let the shot finish then redo the penalty shot whether the goal is scored or not.

A37 is serving a minor penalty. While she is serving this penalty, she is assessed a Misconduct. How does the referee handle this situation with regards to another player serving the minor penalty? (Situation 1 Rule 4.5)

Correct

- ☐ The player serves both the penalties without a teammate serving.
- ☒ Another player serves the time remaining time in the minor penalty while A37 serves the Misconduct + time remaining on minor penalty. ✓
- ☐ Another player serves the misconduct while A37 serves the Misconduct + time remaining on minor penalty.

A person on the bench, who can be identified by the referee, throws a water bottle on the ice. What penalty should be assessed that person? (Rule 7.3d)

Correct

- ☐ If the play is in progress, then a Gross Misconduct; a game misconduct if the play is not in progress.
- ☐ A minor penalty for interference.
- ☐ A match Penalty.
- ☒ A bench minor penalty and a game misconduct. ✓

A coach releases her bench at the conclusion of a period. Under what circumstances should she be assessed a Game Misconduct? (Rule 9.5i)

Correct

- ☐ a) In all circumstances that the coach does not hold her bench at the end of a period.
- ☐ b) If there were other penalties being assessed at at or after time expired.
- ☐ c) If this occurs at the end of the game.
- ☐ d) Both a) and b) are required
- ☒ e) Both b) and c) are required ✓

While in the offensive zone, A31 kicks the puck towards teammate A2. A2 does not see the puck come towards her, but the puck accidentally deflects off A2's stick into the net. Goal or no goal? (Rule 10.7 Situation 1)

Correct

- ☐ a) Good goal. The puck last went off of A2's stick.
- ☒ b) No goal. A2 needed to make a deliberate shooting motion for the goal to count. ✓

Team A shoots the puck from their defending zone down the ice. The puck deflects off a team B player then deflects off a team A player prior to crossing the red-line. The puck then crosses the goal line potentially meeting all criteria for icing. Is this icing or not? (Rule 10.5 Situation 18)

Correct

- ☐ Icing. The last player to touch the puck was team A on team A's side of the ice.
- ☒ Not icing. Team A can not be held responsible for the puck striking a team B player on the team A side of the ice.

Team A ices the puck. Team B goalie comes out of her crease as though to play the puck, but does not and the puck goes over the goal line. Icing or no icing? (Rule 10.5 Situation 17 is the main rule to apply)

Correct

- ☐ a) Call icing. The goalie coming out of the crease does not cancel the icing.
- ☐ b) Call icing. Only wave off the icing if the goalie touches the puck before going it goes over the goal line.
- ☐ c) No icing. As soon as the goalie leaves the crease, wave off the icing.
- ☐ d) Call icing unless the puck goes in the net, in which case call a goal.
- ☒ e) a, b, and d are all correct.

Team B has 1:42 left in a penalty when they are assessed a penalty shot against them. Team A scores. Does the goal on the penalty shot cancel the penalty with 1:42 left? (rule 4.2b)

Correct

- ☐ Only if there is less than 1 minute left in the penalty.
- ☐ Yes, the penalty shot goal cancels the penalty as well.
- ☒ No. The goal was not scored on the power play. It was scored on a penalty shot.
- ☐ Only if it is a minor penalty. If the 1:42 is a major then the goal does not cancel it.

A16 scores a goal with players in the penalty box. What questions should the referee ask herself regarding who gets out, if anyone? (Rule 4.2b Situation 1)

Correct

- ☐ a) Is the team scored on playing short handed?
- ☐ b) Are they serving a minor penalty?

- ☐ c) Are any of the players serving a penalty for someone else?
- ☐ d) Are any of the penalties stick infractions?
- ☒ e) Both a) & b)
- ☐ f) All of the above

A2 shoots the puck on B's net, the puck strikes the goal post and goes out of bounds. Where does the faceoff take place (Rule 10.11a Situation 2)

Correct

- ☐ At center ice.
- ☒ At one of the neutral zone face-off dots on B's side of the ice.
- ☐ At one of the offensive zone face-off dots.
- ☐ At one of the neutral zone face-off dots on A's side of the ice.

A11 has the puck behind B's net. She tries to bounce the puck off the base of the net to get around B6. However, the net is slightly deformed and the puck goes under the net and into the slot. What should the referee do? (Rule 10.11c, situation 3).

Correct

- ☐ a) let play continue.
- ☐ b) stop play if team A gets the puck.
- ☐ c) stop play if team B gets the puck.
- ☒ d) stop play not matter what.

What are the penalty options for spearing? (Rule 8.5, HC Rule Book)

Correct

- ☐ a) A Match Penalty
- ☐ b) a 2+2 penalty
- ☐ c) A Match penalty if a player successfully spears another player.
- ☐ d) A 2+2 for an attempted spear.
- ☒ e) either c) or d)
- ☐ f) either a) or b) depending on intensity of spear

A10 clearly checks B2 from behind. The referee (in the 3-official system) misses the check and call. The linesman, clearly sees the call...may the linesman make the call? (Situation 8, Rule 5.3d)

Correct

- ☐ A) yes, always.

- ☐ B) yes, but only If both linesmen see and agree on the call
- ☒ C) Maybe. A linesman may never call a 2 + GM for CFB (but may call a 5 + GM or Match)
- ☐ D) No. A linesman may never call a CFB regardless of 2 + GM, 5 + GM, or Match.
