

Endzone positioning (see 6.2 & 6.3 of Hockey Canada Officiating Program Manual for description).

The shaded triangle represents “the cone” and is not discussed on page 6.2 and 6.3 because it is a newer policy of Hockey Canada. The cone represents the area where the referee may position him or herself. However, the referee is still encourage to stay above the goal line the majority of the time.